Examiner and Applicant discussed the Appeal Brief filed 12/13/2006 appealing the Final Office Action mailed 08/10/2006. Examiner indicated the arguments presented therein were persuasive and prosecution would be reopened.

Examiner and Applicant discussed that reopening prosecution necessitated clarification of the record with regards to the Requirement for Restriction/Election mailed 12/19/2005. Examiner indicated and Applicant agreed that clarification of the initial Requirement for Restriction/Election and a new grounds of Requirement for Restriction/Election would be set forth in the subsequent Office Action, which also served to withdraw the finality of the previous rejections, in order to further define Applicant's invention.
